6 July 2023

Applicant

Sharmin Kamangarpour

Respondent

Farzad Arfaie

Final order

Further to the conditional order granted on 22 May 2023, no reason has been shown as to why the conditional order should not be made final. Therefore the conditional order is made final.

This certifies that the marriage solemnised on 24 September 2007 at Kermanshah, Iran, Iran between Sharmin Kamangarpour and Farzad Arfaie has legally ended.

Notes:

1. Divorce affects inheritance under a will

Where a will has already been made by either party to the marriage then, by virtue of section 18A of the Wills Act 1837:

- (a) any provisions of the will appointing the former spouse executor or trustee or conferring a power of appointment on the former spouse shall take effect as if the former spouse had died on the date on which the marriage is dissolved unless a contrary intention appears in the will.

- (b) any property which, or an interest in which, is devised or bequeathed to the former spouse shall pass as if the former spouse had died on the date on which the marriage is dissolved unless a contrary intention appears in the will.

2. Divorce affects the appointment of a guardian

Unless a contrary intention is shown in the instrument of appointment, any appointment under section 5(3) or 5(4) of the Children Act 1989 by one spouse of his or her former spouse as guardian is, by virtue of section 6 of the Act, deemed to have been revoked at the date of the dissolution of the marriage.
